

HELD AT THE CAP GUN QUARTER HORSE CIRCUIT
JUNE 14-18, 2017
AT THE ALLIANT ENERGY CENTER, MADISON, WISCONSIN

Cap Gun is excited to host a Non-Pro Versatility Challenge at the Cap Gun Quarter Horse Circuit held June 14-18, 2017, at the Alliant Energy Center in Madison, Wisconsin. The Challenge will consist of four (4) segments.

Showmanship
Hunt Seat Equitation
Western Horsemanship
Barrels

Showmanship and horsemanship will be shown Friday evening. Equitation and barrels will be shown Saturday evening.

Patterns for each segment will be handed out five minutes before the segment begins. Working orders will be drawn when patterns are handed out.

The Challenge will be limited to the first 15 entries.

All segments will use AQHA rules. Five minutes between each segment will be allowed to prepare for the next segment. The first exhibitor ready for the next segment will be awarded a prize.

There will be 2 celebrity/surprise judges, and Cap Gun sponsors will have two electronic votes. The sponsors' combined votes will have the same weight as one judge (total of three judges).

There will be cash/awards for each segment of the Challenge and cash/awards for the average.

Exhibitors must show in all four segments of the challenge to be eligible for any prizes and/or payback related to the event.

The entry fee is $50.00, and contestants may enter on line. All entry fees and added money will be paid back. Entries will be accepted starting Friday, May 12, 2017, and may be made electronically or at the Lazy Days Quarter Horse Circuit in Madison, Wisconsin.
